Order yours today. "Surviving Ivan, Memories of the Flood of 2004" is a 48-page book dedicated to the flood of 2004. This limited edition, keep-sake book is filled with page after page of large, full color photos covering all of the devastating effects that Hurricane Ivan had on the Lehigh Valley. From the house that hit the Easton-Phillipsburg free bridge to the submergence of Larry Holmes Drive; from the washed out grounds of Celtic Classic in Bethlehem to the cleanup -- and everything in between.

Books may be purchased at the Red Cross
